Experience

Hsuan Boon has developed his practice with a specialization in civil and commercial litigation and arbitration. He advises and represents clients in complex corporate and commercial disputes, including breaches of directors' duties and shareholder minority oppression suits. He has assisted clients in banking disputes over loan agreements, and against a foreign state-owned enterprise for registration and enforcement proceedings. Several of these matters have involved complex interactions between different systems of law.

Hsuan Boon also advises clients in the negotiation and drafting of a variety of corporate agreements, including sale and purchase agreements, subscription agreements and shareholders agreements.

Hsuan Boon also has experience in disputes over estates and trust matters, insolvency litigation, defamation claims and employment disputes. Hsuan Boon also practises criminal law.
